Approach to corporate citizenship and providing an environment of responsible gaming

Creating a Culture of Corporate Citizenship Marina Bay Sands' culture of corporate citizenship stems from the pillars established by its parent company, Las Vegas Sands Corp. In addition to its commitment to its stakeholders including employees, the local community, and the environment, its commitment to responsible gaming is a key focus of its corporate citizenship strategy. Marina Bay Sands will discuss its approach to responsible gaming and the various components of its programme that promotes an atmosphere of responsible gaming and ensures both patrons and employees at all levels are equipped with the relevant sources of information.
